

From your Burning Man Archive and Documentation Team -

The Archive and Documentation Team is archiving a collection of gifts, theme-camp affiliation items, and images which participants have designed and created to share with others (it's material culture don't cha know!).

Submit this form with two samples of your: stickers, necklaces, cards, tee-shirts... whatever you have to promote your participation!

Because this material is sometimes displayed at art exhibitions, we need this form information for accurate archiving. It's part of the cultural history of Burning Man, and we need your contributions!
